Travel profile

Keep your travel style and preferences available for future plans. A single trip can still override any of them.

About me (free text — the agent learns from this)

Tell me about yourself and your travel style in plain words. e.g. I'm Muniish from Bengaluru. I travel with my wife Priya and our 8-year-old son Aarav (vegetarian). We love beaches, hiking and good coffee, but hate crowded tourist traps and late nights.

Let the agent decide with smart defaults

It uses your request, travel profile, and history without stopping to confirm defaults. Turn this off to let it ask one quick question when an answer would meaningfully help.

What Trippanner understands

The words are human. Multiple food tags combine; the values stay precise and stable for the planner.

What I've learned about you

Regenerate

Reset

Travels solo with a balanced approach to trip planning and prefers moderate comfort. Consistently chooses standard hotel rooms with at least a 3-star rating and favors economy flights, direct routes, and is open to trains and rental cars but not buses. Shows interest in both domestic and international destinations, including Chennai, Indore, Rameshwaram, Madurai, Kanyakumari, Kodakanal, and Paris. No dietary restrictions or strong dislikes are indicated, and there are no associated allergies or medical concerns.

This is my summary of you (distinct from "About me", which is yours). I refresh it after our conversations; your edits stick.

REVERSIBLE

A small thing I noticed

Suggested from chat

Rhea mentioned she likes relaxed mornings. Should I remember that for future trips?
